Texas Indigent Defense Commission ATTN: Joel Lieurance 209 W. 14th Street Room 202 Austin, Texas 78701

Subject: Indigence Review Response Letter

Dear Mr. Lieurance

In response to the Review of Milam County's Indigent Defense Systems dated July 2023, I submit the following response summary of actions taken to correct the recommended findings.

2023 Finding 1 (felony cases) & 2023 Finding 2 (misdemeanor cases): Four days after taking office, on January 4th of 2023, a meeting was held with the County Attorney's office, several of our JPs, Municipal Judges, County Judge, District and County Clerk's offices to discuss procedures and improvements to be made in the all-around process of holding court in Milam County including Indigent Defense.

At the time of this meeting, it was determined that we should make the process from magistration to appointment of defense counsel a more concise and open to allow for greater communication to keep individuals from "slipping through the cracks." In doing so, it has created more open communications that allow for a freer flow of information and while still not perfect, this has allowed the county to reduce the amount of time to process requests and appoint counsel as required.

After a meeting in July, it was further determined that in 2022, much of the delay with misdemeanor cases was that the County Court was waiting on the District Court to assign counsel or determine a case before an appointment was made. After the two courts consulted on this, it was determined that if an indigent defendant has cases in both courts, the defendant will likewise have the same court-appointed attorney in both courts to reduce the time in appointment and the confusion by having multiple attorneys appointed to the same defendant. This also reduces the time to discharge cases as a single attorney will handle the defendant's charges in both courts.

2023 Finding 3: In response to this finding, Milam County has incorporated the three documents intended to save time in the appointment of counsel process and clear up issues in the explanation of rights and statutory requirements. The use of an "Application for Court-Appointed Attorney and Financial Affidavit", the "Judge's Explanation of Representation Options", and the "Waiver of Right to Counsel" have all been incorporated in this process and will be included with this document for further review by the TIDC. Further, during the courtroom process, the defendant is read their rights and asked to acknowledge their rights and the choice of counsel or waiver of such counsel.

Overall, Milam County is conscious of our past shortfalls and is working to correct these past issues by improving the process. It is our hope that future reviews will indicate improvement in these areas and that we will continue to improve as we move forward.

I appreciate your help in these matters and look forward to discussing this with you in the future.

Sincerely

Bill Whitmire

County Judge
